WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Sharp, of this place, "I wished I could die, I was so tired, I was so full of troubles, I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me; and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework."

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally, I look Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. At all druggists.

MEETING AT GARRED'S CHAPEL.

Quite an interesting meeting was held at Garred's Chapel Saturday evening, June 20th. The meeting was called by J. A. When this meeting was called it was found that Mr. E. S. Kegley, our County Agent, would be with us. After the business called for was transacted, a very interesting farmer's meeting was held. Mr. Kegley delivered quite an interesting address, responded to by G. C. Burgess, L. A. Garred, R. B. Spencer and M. L. Burgess. Quite a storm of questions were asked him which he answered promptly with good explanation. ONE PRESENT.
